

SACRED SOLAR JOURNEYS PERU / BOLIVIA

JUNE 14TH – JULY 5TH 2011

Imagine yourself on a South American Adventure to discover the delights of Peru and Bolivia at the very special time of the Winter Solstice.

This is a time of huge celebration as the Sun is welcomed back after a long cold winter. You get to experience the "Inti Raymi Festival" in the ancient city of Cusco (the "navel" of the world)

This Festival is the major festival of the year and attracts thousands of people who come to celebrate for a week. We will be there for the 24th June so that you can enjoy all of the colour and celebration at its climax.

For the first part of the trip we will base ourselves in the beautiful Sacred Valley as there are many exceptional Sacred Sites in this region. Machu Picchu is a short trip from here.. This will give you time to adjust to the high altitudes before we go back to Cusco to enjoy the festivities and explore the numerous sites there.

Plaza De Armas, Cusco, Peru

Machu Picchu

We connect with the Q'ero shamans who trek for days from their remote homes high in the Andes to be with us. We participate in ceremonies with them at various sites and you may also have the opportunity to have a private Coca leaf reading or healing session with them.

While the emphasis of this tour is a spiritual one, you will also discover the Culinary and Musical delights of these regions while experiencing the wonder and power of the many Sacred Sites

The food of these regions is exceptional as there is an abundance of fresh, organic produce. The Sacred Valley is a fertile "foodbowl" of the region and fresh trout is a specialty. For the adventurous there is also Guinea Pig and Alpaca.

Peru is becoming known as a world leader in modern cuisine and there are many “fine dining” restaurants as well as the more “rustic” dining establishments.

Music is very much a part of the South American culture. You can listen to the traditional music or enjoy the emerging modern music scene.

Uros Islands, lake Titicaca, Peru

We spend quite a bit of time at Lake Titicaca in Bolivia. This region is one of rare power and incredible beauty. There are islands in this region that hold the secrets of the ages. Our guides and Shamans work with us to help unlock these secrets make our visit an unforgettable experience.
